

BIO

Morgan M. Ford, a South Carolina native, currently teaches photography and runs the Shircliff Gallery of Art at Vincennes University in Vincennes, IN. Her work addresses social issues dealing with women's self-image through the examination of the impact of advertising and societal pressures. Her work was exhibited nationally in three solo exhibitions in 2011.

Curator and artist Deborah Willis selected her for En Foco's New Works Photography Award #12.